

YOU VOTED.

NOW WHAT?

You voted like they told you to, watched Jon Stewart every night, maybe uploaded a YouTube video, even friended a news site on Twitter—and still the world's a mess? What the heck!

Find out what you can do to make this world a better place in which to live by getting involved, becoming informed, and taking a stand.

BRING PUNDIT RICK SHENKMAN'S NEW TALK TO YOUR CAMPUS TO FIND OUT HOW.

Rick appeared on The Daily Show in June 2008

Can you really make a difference? Yes, you can!

How can you make a difference?

First and foremost, by becoming better informed you can help your friends and family understand what's at stake, who's to blame, and what can be done. It's the power of one. Educate yourself and all the people you regularly come in contact with will benefit too. It's the drop-in-the-pond theory of democracy. Watch the ripples.

And make money, too! Sorry, actually, well, no, we can't help you make money. But we can help you find out which news sources are trustworthy, how you can draw media attention to your favorite cause, and which groups to join to help make this a better world.

Whether your thing is simply good citizenship or community organizing there's no time like now to begin.

So let's begin...
